Re: United States v. Jhajuan Sabb
20-CR-274 (LEK)

SENTENCING LETTER

Dear Judge Kahn:

The above-captioned defendant, Mr. Jhajuan Sabb, is scheduled to be before your Court for a final revocation hearing for tomorrow, Wednesday, January 18, 2023, at 10:30 a.m. In anticipation of that hearing, Mr. Sabb wishes to inform this Court of his intention to admit to both violations described in the violation petition. As a result of this anticipated admission, Mr. Sabb will face an advisory guideline sentence of 24 months in custody.

Mr. Sabb, by and through the undersigned, respectfully requests that this Court impose a sentence concurrent with his 35-year state sentence. It is the defense's contention that such a sentence, when considering the state sentence Mr. Sabb has received, will be sufficient, but not greater than necessary to meet the goals of sentencing. It is defense counsel's understanding that such a sentence will afford Mr. Sabb greater rehabilitative programming opportunities than if he were to receive a consecutive sentence requiring, which would require a federal detainer to be lodged with New York State Department of Corrections.

As a secondary issue, Mr. Sabb asks that this Court consider imposing no supervision to follow. It is anticipated that Mr. Sabb will be on supervision with New York State upon completion of his jail sentence. Mr. Sabb respectfully submits that such supervision will be more than sufficient to ensure his eventual reentry to the community.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Michael P. McGeown-Walker
